RE: Minutes of the April 18, 2018 Curricula & Courses Committee Meeting

MINUTES

A. NEW COURSE

1. EPSY 5266 – Instructional Media & Game Design; three credits. Online/Spring 2019
This course will introduce students to narrative—the means by which humans share and contextualize information—within the context of instructional game design, the application of game mechanics and design processes in traditionally non-game contexts (sometimes called “gamification”). Through a deconstruction of media and storytelling, we will discuss how to optimally develop engaging, informative, and cooperative educational environments. Prerequisite: Instructor consent.

APPROVAL BY DEPARTMENT: April 6, 2018

APPROVAL BY C&C COMMITTEE: April 18, 2018

APPROVAL BY FACULTY COUNCIL: April 25, 2018

B. REVISED COURSE

1. EPSY 6103 – Grant Writing; three credits.
Current Catalog Copy
The grant procurement process is covered from identifying funding sources through initial grant management with a focus on actually writing a grant proposal.
